Hague, September 1, N. S.

ALL the Members of the Regency and Magiſtrates of the Province of Overyſſel have agreed to contribute 500 Florins a Piece for the Service of the Publick. It is computed theſe Contributions will amount, for the Magiſtrates and Regents, to about 70,000 Florins, beſides what it is expected will be contributed by the other Inhabitants of that Province.

Bergen-op-Zoom, Sept. 1, N. S. Yeſterday Afternoon there was a ſmart Cannonade both from the Town and Camp, which laſted till near Midnight, when a Signal was given from the Baſtion Pucelle for a General Fire of all the Artillery and Small Arms, which was immediately executed with great Regularity, and continued till Four o'Clock in the Morning. At Break of Day we could ſee that the Enemy's Lodgments were quite razed. At Six o'Clock they went to work again, to repair their Lodgments; and we are now preparing to renew our Fire in the ſame Manner as laſt Night, in which our Artillery loſt but 12 Men. We have juſt received a Captain and twenty two Miners from Maeſtricht.

Bergen op-Zoom, Sept. 4, N. S. Since my Letter of the 1ſt, the Enemy have repaired their Lodgments, but have gained no new Ground. The Day before Yeſterday they ſprung a Mine almoſt oppoſite to the Angle of the Ravelin of Dedem, towards the Left, which ſhook Part of our Gallery, and killed two Men. Our Miners hearing the Enemy at Work near one of our Mines, as if they meant to withdraw the Charge, ſet Fire to it in the Evening, by which the French Miners were killed; and Yeſterday, at One of the Clock in the Morning, we ſprung another, which did great Execution. We are ſtill Maſters of the Lunette of Utrecht, having a Command of 60 Men in the Redoubt, and a Reſerve of 30 in the Gallery under the Lunette; from whence ſix Swiſſers, with an Officer, ſallied laſt Night about Midnight, threw down the Sacks of Earth, and ſet fire to the Gabions of the Enemy, which burned two Hours, and came all back ſafe into the Gallery, except one Soldier who was taken Priſoner by an Earth Sack's falling down upon him. Our Fire is of late much ſuperior to that of the Enemy.

Hague, Sept. 5, N. S. Our laſt Advices from Bergen-op Zoom continue to be favourable. The Beſieged defend themſelves with equal Vigour and Reſolution, whilſt the Enemy ſeem to be tired and diſheartned with the long Reſiſtance of that Place. M. Lowendahl has been obliged to diſmount Part of his Cavalry, who do Duty at preſent in the Trenches. For theſe ſeveral Days paſt the French have not made the leaſt Progreſs. On the 31ſt paſt the Enemy being ſtill apprehenſive that the Garriſon might ſpring ſome other Mines under the Lunette of Zealand, choſe to prevent them, by blowing it up entirely themſelves. But while they were endeavouring to compleat a new Lodgment upon it, the Garriſon made a Salley, in which they ſet Fire to their Gabions and Faſcines. They ſtill however perſiſt in compleating this Lodgment, without which it is impoſſible for them to attack the Ravelin of Dedem: And they are endeavouring likewiſe to erect Batteries upon the Counterſcarp, to batter the ſaid Ravelin in Breach. The Prince of Orange's Birth-Day was celebrated laſt Friday by a prodigious Firing from the Town, which, according to all Accounts, did the Enemy a great deal of Miſchief. On the 2d Inſtant the Garriſon ſprung two Mines; the firſt under the Counterſcarp, oppoſite to the Left of the Lunette of Utrecht, which totally deſtroyed the Enemy's Lodgment, and blew up a whole Company of their Grenadiers. The other Mine was play'd under the ſame Lunette with great Succeſs, and entirely ruined the Works the French had been compleating pleating for ſeveral Days before. Letters received this Morning from Oudenboſch inform us, that an entire free Company, with their Officers, had deſerted from the Enemy, and was arrived at that Place.

The Viper engaged her from Four o'Clock in the Afternoon till half paſt Five, when ſhe ſtruck, and is brought into Mounts Bay. There was only about ſix or ſeven thouſand Pounds found on board her, ſhe having put on Shore 200,000 Pounds at the Canaries.

On the 18th Inſtant, at Nine in the Morning, his Majeſty's Ship the Bellona, commanded by the Honourable Captain Barrington, gave Chaſe to a Sail, which was then ſtanding to the Eaſtward, and at One he diſcovered her to be an Enemy, as ſhe had then ſhortened Sail for him; in three Quarters of an Hour afterwards the Chaſe hoiſted French Colours, and fired at the Bellona, which Captain Barrington not thinking himſelf near enough, being but juſt within Point-blank, would not return till about Two of the Clock, when (Uſhant bearing Eaſt, diſtant three Leagues) he began to engage her cloſely, and continued ſo till half paſt Four, when ſhe ſtruck. She proved to be a French Eaſt India Ship from Port L'Orient, called the Duke de Chartres, mounted with 30 Guns, and 195 Men, Burthen about 700 Tons, laden with Beef, Flower, Brandy, Wine, and Oyl, and had alſo on board three Mortars, and a great Number of Shells. Captain Barrington has brought her into Mounts Bay.
